Other Requests: Power, Overhead Clearance, Pavement or Grass (Event Coordinator will try to accommodate your requests)

SPACE: This agreement entitles you to one 12' x 12' Vendor's space as assigned by the Sugar Loaf Chamber of Commerce and may not be changed without the permission of the event coordinator. Additional fees may be required if space is larger than 12' x 12'. Vendors may not subcontract to other individuals or businesses to sell, offer or display, additional products or services, nor shall Vendors substitute items or services listed above without our express advance consent. Vendors must occupy assigned spaces only and must confine their activities and all merchandise, equipment, case or packing materials within marked boundary lines.

DISPLAYS & CLEAN-UP: Vendors must supply their booth, equipment, containers, tables, chair, display, any water or ice required, or anything else required to function. Set up begins at 7:00 AM on the day of the Festival. Display must be attended at all times during selling hours and vendors must be ready for customers no later than 9:30 A.M. Display must be in good taste, kept tidy, and all modern equipment, packaging, etc. must be kept out of public sight. Vendors are responsible for maintenance and clean up of space during and upon conclusion of Festival and for keeping space free from any conditions which might be dangerous to persons coming into the festival. Vendors must provide their own trash bags and are responsible for removal and disposal of same and for complying with applicable NY State recycling law.

PARKING: No vehicles will be permitted on the Festival Grounds between 9:30 AM and 6:00 PM. Unauthorized vehicles will be towed away at the owner's expense. Upon arrival at the Festival, each vendor will receive one parking permit which will be valid for parking one vehicle off-site. But for exceptional circumstances, all parking will be assigned off-site. Additional permits may be issued only by advance request of the Festival Committee, by phone, and with justification.

PRESENCE OF ANIMALS: The presence of any animal or bird is prohibited unless written approval by event coordinator is secured in advance. This is a liability issue.

LIMITS OF LIABILITY: In consideration of the privilege of attending the Festival, and payment of the application fee which is below the actual prorated costs of the Festival, the applicant, on behalf of its respective relatives, heirs, assigns, executors and administrators (collectively the applicant) hereby permanently and irrevocably waives any and all actions, claims, demands, suits and proceedings of any kind and nature against The Sugar Loaf Chamber of Commerce as producer of the Festival, and against the New York State Department of Parks and Recreation, as co-presenter of the Festival and their respective officers, directors, representatives, agents, consultants or employees, affiliates, predecessors, successors in interest and assigns (collectively the sponsors) arising out of direct or indirect action of any kind or nature, whether now known or hereafter discovered, and the applicant, by its signature hereon, forever releases and discharges the sponsors from any losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses (including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) (collectively "losses") with respect thereto. The applicant further agrees that it will indemnify, defend, save and hold harmless the sponsors from any losses sustained by them which directly or indirectly result from or arise out of any action or failure of action by the applicant.

VIOLATIONS: Any applicant who violates any of the terms and conditions of this application may lose the privilege of participating in the Festival, without refund.

RAINDATE: In the event of continuous and torrential downpour on the day of the Festival, or any other circumstances beyond the control of the Sugar Loaf Chamber of Commerce (to be determined by 9:30 AM & is the sole discretion of the event committee), the Festival shall be postponed and this application shall apply in its entirety to a proposed rain date.
